

Litigation Associate Attorney

Political Law

Job #A20170803 – Washington, D.C.

The Washington, D.C. office of Perkins Coie is seeking a junior litigation associate to join its Political Law practice group. Excellent academic credentials, including graduation from a top-tier law school and law review or journal experience, and clerkship experience or substantive litigation experience (ideally on civil rights matters), are required. The position offers a rare opportunity to litigate a wide range of political law issues including voting rights, campaign finance, issues arising out of the elections process, as well as general matters involving political actors. To apply, please click on the link below and attach your cover letter, resume, writing sample, law school transcript, and contact information for at least two references.

APPLY

Perkins Coie LLP is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, genetic information, protected veterans, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability status or any other category prohibited by local, state or federal law. This policy applies to all aspects of employment, including recruitment, placement, promotion, transfer, demotion, compensation, benefits, social and recreational activities and termination.

For more information about equal employment opportunity, please click here for “EEO Is the Law.” To request a disability accommodation in the application process, please click here. Perkins Coie participates in E-Verify, please view the following links for details in English and Spanish. For information regarding your Right to Work, click here for details in English and Spanish.