

City of Anaheim, CA

City Attorney

Annual salary range: $181,325 to $271,987 DOE DOQ

Application deadline: Friday, June 3, 2016

The City of Anaheim (pop. 351,000), founded in 1857, is one of the nation's premier municipalities and is one of California's most populous cities. The City Attorney's office in this charter city provides legal advice to the city's elected officers, City Manager, city departments, and boards and commissions. As an appointee of the Mayor and City Council, the City Attorney's resources consist of a budget of approximately $8 million and a staff of 33 employees, including 22 attorneys. The City Attorney's office is comprised of three divisions: Legal Administration, Civil, and Prosecution.

Candidates must possess a J.D. degree and license to practice law in California. It is anticipated that the City Attorney will be a highly competent, experienced professional and strong generalist, with a solid record of pre-trial risk assessment, an in-depth understanding of issues confronting California cities and an appreciation for the role differences between elected officers and appointed officials. Candidates who possess some litigation experience and are familiar with charter city government processes will be favorably considered. Ideal candidates will have the demonstrated ability to successfully navigate with a body of elected officials with a diversity of viewpoints.
