

Commercial Counsel

We're looking for a commercial lawyer to join our legal team, which believes in taking a pragmatic approach to lawyering! We are a small and nimble legal team supporting a growing company, so you will cover a lot of ground. You'll negotiate and draft a wide variety of general commercial and vendor agreements, as well as advise teams on various legal risks, business strategies and other issues related to commercial transactions and general operations. Plus, you get to work at Pinterest and devote yourself to helping us build a world-changing product!

What you'll do:

- Day to day advice on a broad range of commercial matters
- Review, draft and negotiate all types of agreements - including inbound, outbound, infrastructure, SOWs, vendor, real estate, and partnership agreements
- Advise senior management and cross-functional leaders about relevant legal issues and risks, complex agreement structures, approval processes, and company policies and procedures
- Provide general legal support to our global business on an as-needed basis

What we're looking for:

- JD, admitted to the Bar
- 4-8 years relevant work experience in a demanding and innovative legal environment
- Strong negotiation and drafting experience
- Track record of initiative, collaboration, problem-solving and intellectual curiosity
- Experienced with managing multiple projects for various internal stakeholders
