

IP Transactions Attorney, Denver (Reference #10150112)

Searching for a junior IP transactional attorney. Come join our vibrant, growing team in Denver doing dynamic IP transactional work at the dominant firm in the Mountain West.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

This position involves structuring, drafting, reviewing and negotiating a variety of sophisticated and complex agreements related to IP, technology and other commercial matters, including agreements related to SaaS platforms and software offerings, strategic alliance agreements, IP licenses, consulting agreements, equipment purchase and support agreements, distribution agreements and joint development agreements; as well as advising clients on privacy law matters. This person will also support the IP components of M&A deals. The clients this person will serve are mainly a mix of emerging growth, Mountain West mid-market and coastal Fortune 500 companies.

WHERE YOU WILL BE

The attorney hired to fill this opening will be based in the H&H Denver office but will be expected to work at our Boulder office a couple of days a week.

WHO YOU ARE

High academic achievement; 0-2 years of experience related to IP transactions or commercial agreements; driven and hard-working; possess extraordinary attention to detail; thrive in a fast-paced atmosphere while juggling numerous client imposed deadlines; embody our firm values (<https://www.hollandhart.com/statement-of-values>); Colorado licensed or willing to become Colorado licensed. An interest in government contracts is a plus.
