

Product & Consumer Litigation Associate

The Raleigh office of McGuireWoods seeks an associate with 1-3 years of litigation experience to join an active trial practice in its Product & Consumer Litigation department. The desire to develop into a lead trial lawyer as well as excellent academic credentials and demonstrated top-notch legal research, analysis and writing skills are required. Candidates with large law firm experience, and current or former judicial clerks are preferred. Candidates must be a member of the North Carolina bar, eligible to waive in, or must be scheduled to take next available exam. Please submit cover letter, resume, writing sample, and law school transcript.

Disclaimer: At this time, McGuireWoods will not be accepting applicants submitted through search firms or headhunters for this position. All qualified candidates must submit their own applications for consideration.

Contact:Tamara A. Fairhursttfairhurst@mcguirewoods.com