

STAFF ATTORNEYS

South Coastal Counties Legal Services (SCCLS), a non-profit civil legal aid program, with offices in Fall River, Hyannis, New Bedford and Brockton, seeks to hire full time staff attorneys, admitted to practice or eligible for admission in Massachusetts, to work on a new project designed to deliver legal representation in a wide variety of civil legal matters to victims of crime, including victims of sexual and domestic violence, human trafficking, or elder abuse. The attorneys will work in the areas of housing and financial stability, family, and/or immigration, and as otherwise directed by the managing attorney. Staff attorneys must work competently in SCCLS' case management system; work as directed on particular grants; cooperate and assist with the timely preparation of grant reports; and engage in outreach and community education. The attorneys will manage a substantial caseload of individual cases, along with special projects, and engage in impact advocacy. Experience working with vulnerable populations is preferred. Fluency in a second language such as Spanish, Portuguese, Cape Verdean Creole, or Haitian Creole also preferred. The positions will be open until filled.

SALARY: Commensurate with experience.

(Bi-Lingual Increment in Addition to Salary: Up to $1,500 Annually)

EXCELLENT BENEFITS: Medical, dental, long/short term disability, life insurance, loan repayment for attorneys, bilingual stipend, a 403b retirement plan, and generous leave.
