

Finance Associate – Los Angeles

Thompson Coburn is seeking an Associate/Counsel to join the finance practice to service our banking and corporate clients. Candidates do not need to have finance experience, but must be committed to learning the practice and continuing in this practice area. Candidates must have strong academic achievement, excellent analytical and writing skills, strong interpersonal skills, a willingness to work hard and the ability to function independently and within a team.

To apply for the position, please visit <http://www.thompsoncoburn.com/careers> or click here or to submit a cover letter, resume, transcripts and writing sample. This position is open to candidates from recruiting agencies.

About Thompson Coburn LLP

At Thompson Coburn, our passion for excellence starts with our people. We hire exceptional lawyers, paralegals and staff from throughout the country and provide them with the best training available and an exceptional work environment in which to put their skills to use. Our diverse combination of bright, energetic lawyers, paralegals and staff working together in an open, friendly work atmosphere is one of the major attractions of our firm. We are proud of the more than 750 people who have found fulfilling career opportunities with Thompson Coburn, and we strive to continuously improve our employee satisfaction at all levels. Supported by our firm's state-of-the-art technology, lawyers in our Chicago, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Southern Illinois and Washington, D.C. offices enjoy a nationwide practice.

Please visit <http://www.thompsoncoburn.com/> for more information.